a riveting tale of three generations this is storytelling at its finest john boyne utterly absorbing a big sweeping story of family and identity edel coffey why hadn t she said to her daughter i love you beyond reason and none of this matters at all and every day that you breathe is a gift rafaela remembers everything that matters her beautiful childhood in san juan her marriage to peter uprooting their children ruth and benny to the american midwest and losing all sense of her place in the world so she tells no one when her memory begins to slip her daughter in new york with a family of her own wishes she could forget her muddy feelings about where she comes from the same feelings which motivated her 22 year old daughter daisy to reconnect with their past daisy who has momentarily forgotten everything hears the word critical in a hospital room in san juan and remembers all at once the car that hurtled towards her the terrible storm and something else what was it now ruth and rafaela must return to the city where it all began to gather by daisy's bedside and confront the twists of fate that have caused a growing rift in their family and led them to this moment también de este lado hay sueños on this side too there are dreams lydia quixano perez lives in the mexican city of acapulco she runs a bookstore she has a son luca the love of her life and a wonderful husband who is a journalist and while there are cracks beginning to show in acapulco because of the drug cartels her life is by and large fairly comfortable even though she knows they'll never sell lydia stocks some of her all time favorite books in her store and then one day a man enters the shop to browse and comes up to the register with four books he would like to buy two of them her favorites javier is erudite he is charming and unbeknownst to lydia he is the jefe of the newest drug cartel that has gruesomely taken over the city when lydia's husband's tell all profile of javier is published none of their lives will ever be the same forced to flee lydia and eight year old luca soon find themselves miles and worlds away from their comfortable middle class existence instantly transformed into migrants lydia and luca ride la bestia trains that make their way north toward the united states which is the only place javier's reach doesn't extend as they join the countless people trying to reach el norte lydia soon sees that everyone is running from something but what exactly are they running to american dirt will leave readers utterly changed when they finish reading it a page turner filled with poignancy drama and humanity on every page it is a literary achievement what does it mean to call a place home from 1 new york times bestselling author jeanine cummins comes a deeply felt multigenerational family story on her wedding day in san juan puerto rico in 1968 rafaela acuña y daubón has mild misgivings but she marries peter brennan jr anyway in a blaze of romantic optimism she has no way of knowing how dramatically her life will change when she uproots her young family to start over in the american midwest unleashing a fleet of disappointments in the 1980s against the backdrop of her mother's isolation in st louis missouri rafaela's daughter ruth wants only to belong eager to fit in ruth lets go of her language habits and childhood memories of puerto rico it's not until decades later when ruth's own daughter daisy returns to san juan that her mother and grandmother begin to truly reflect on the choices that have come to define their lives when a hurricane ravages the island in 2023 leaving daisy critically injured rafaela and ruth return to the city where their story began as they gather at daisy s bedside we follow them back into the moments that brought them to this point we watch as they come of age fall in love take risks and contend with all the heartbreaks triumphs and reversals of fortune both good and bad that make up a meaningful life as old memories come to light so do buried secrets leaving everyone in the family wondering exactly where it is that they belong a striking resonant examination of marriage family and identity speak to me of home is ultimately a story of mothers and daughters that asks how can three women who share geography and genetics have such wildly different ideas of where they come from and more important can they discover a common language to find their way back home
